WHAT IS THIS BOOK ABOUT?

Germany, 1918-45 is a depth study that investigates how Germany became a democratic republic before being transformed into a dictatorship. The course focuses on the origins of the Weimar Republic, the challenges it faced and to what extent it overcame those challenges. The course also investigates why and how the Weimar Republic was dismantled by the Nazis, replaced by a dictatorship and then changed by the Second World War. You will focus on the crucial events and people of this period, as well as studying the different social, cultural, political, economic, military and religious changes that occurred.

Purpose

This study enables you to understand the complexities and challenges that the democratic Weimar Republic faced and how it was transformed into a one-party state under the leadership of the Nazis. You will investigate themes such as democracy, revolution, fascism and nazism, dictatorship, government, propaganda, art and culture, censorship, persecution, genocide, economy and society. You will develop the skills of explaining, analysing and making judgements about events, beliefs, people and situations. You will use the concepts of cause, consequences, change, continuity, similarity, difference and significance to construct valid historical explanations.

Topics

Germany, 1918-45 is split into 3 key enquiries.

- 🗒 Enquiry 1 looks at the development of the Weimar Republic between 1918 and 1933. You will study the origins of the new republic, the political and economic challenges it faced and to what extent it recovered between 1924 and 1929. You will investigate to what extent the collapse of the Weimar Republic was inevitable.
- 🗒 Enquiry 2 looks at Hitler's journey to become chancellor between 1919 and 1934. You will study the early development of the Nazi Party, the failed Munich Beer Hall Putsch and how the Nazi Party was reorganised afterwards. You will also study the political developments during the Great Depression and how political intrigue led to Adolf Hitler becoming chancellor of Germany in 1933. Finally, you will study how Hitler was able to consolidate his position in 1934 and begin his move towards creating a dictatorship in Germany.
- 🗒 Enquiry 3 has two sections that look at the Nazi dictatorship and the extent to which it controlled Germany, and what it was like to live under the Nazi's between 1933 and 1945. In the first section, you will study opposition to the regime and how this was dealt with through different methods of control such as propaganda, censorship and the Nazi police state. In the second section, you will investigate the experience of young people and women under the Nazi's, as well as social and economic policies and the impact of the Second World War.

Key Individuals

Some of the key individuals studied on this course include:

- 👤 Adolf Hitler.
- 👤 Friedrich Ebert.
- 👤 Paul von Hindenburg.
- 👤 Gustav Stresemann.
- 👤 Rosa Luxemburg.
- 👤 Joseph Goebbels.

Key Events

Some of the key events you will study on this course include:

- 🌟 The effects of the Treaty of Versailles on Germany.
- 🌟 The Nuremberg Rallies.
- 🌟 The impact of the Great Depression on Germany.
- 🌟 Hitler becoming chancellor in 1933.
- 🌟 The creation of the Nazi police state and the setting up of the Gestapo.
- 🌟 The Hitler Youth and the League of German Maidens.
- 🌟 The Nazi persecution of the Jews such as the Nuremberg Laws.
- 🌟 The growth of opposition to the Nazis during the Second World War, including the Swing Youth and the White Rose Group.

Assessment

Germany, 1918-45 is one of the specified depth studies found in Paper 1, where you have a total of 2 hours to complete 3 questions. You must answer 2 questions from the core section of the paper and one question from a choice of two questions on your chosen depth study. Therefore, you will answer one question on Germany, 1918-45 if this is your chosen depth study. The question is comprised of 3 sections; a), b), and c).

-  Question a is worth 4 marks. This question will require you to describe key features of the time period. You will be asked to recall 2 relevant points and support them with details or provide at least four relevant points without supporting detail.
-  Question b is worth 6 marks. This question will require you to explain a key event or development. You will need to identify two reasons, support those reasons with relevant factual detail and then explain how the reasons made the event occur.
-  Question c is worth 10 marks. This question will require you to construct an argument to support and challenge an interpretation stated in the question. You will need to have a minimum of three explanations (two on one side and one on the other) in total, fully evaluate the argument and come to a justified conclusion. You will have the opportunity to show your ability to explain and analyse historical events using 2nd order concepts such as causation, consequence, change, continuity, similarity and difference.

THE IMPACT OF THE FIRST WORLD WAR ON GERMANY

The First World War had a significant impact on Germany.

What happened with Germany and the First World War?

The First World War had a huge impact on Germany's society, politics and economy.

How did Germany enter the First World War?

The following 3 key events led to Germany entering the First World War.

- ✓ Germany declared war on Russia on the 1st August, 1914.
- ✓ After Germany invaded France via Belgium, Great Britain declared war on Germany on the 4th August.
- ✓ This was followed by the Ottoman Empire (Turkey) joining the war a few months later, in October, where it supported Germany.

How was Germany affected by the First World War?

Germany was affected in 3 key ways:

- ✓ Germany was economically damaged and the country's debt increased to 150 billion marks.
- ✓ They were affected socially with two million troops and approximately 763,000 civilians dead.
- ✓ They were affected politically with many groups attempting to seize power, the Kaiser's abdication and Germany becoming a republic.

How did the First World War affect people socially in Germany?

Germany was badly hit by the war because of the Allied Naval Blockade that stopped supplies getting into Germany during the war, and remained in place until the signing of the Treaty of Versailles, leaving many starving and ill.

How many casualties did the First World War claim in Germany?

Germany was affected socially by the First World War in 5 key ways:

- ✓ They had a high casualty rate with approximately two million dead soldiers.
- ✓ Some 600,000 women were left as widows.
- ✓ The war also took its toll on civilians, with approximately 763,000 people dying from starvation.
- ✓ The gap between rich and poor had grown as a result of the war and increased social divisions.
- ✓ Over 1 and a half million soldiers returned home following the war, many struggling to adapt back to civilian life and accept defeat.

What happened to Germany's economy after the First World War?

There were 7 significant negative effects on the economy:

- ✓ By 1918, industrial production was reduced by a third from 1913 levels.
- ✓ Fuel was short as a result of the war and consequently 300,000 people died from hypothermia.
- ✓ The government's budget was stretched by paying pensions to the 600,000 widows and 2 million orphans left after the war.
- ✓ Germany's debt was 50 billion German marks in 1914. This rapidly increased to 150 billion by 1918.
- ✓ Germany was bankrupt as it had spent all its gold reserves on the war.
- ✓ Inflation increased as a result of the weak German mark so the prices of goods were increasing.
- ✓ Germany was forced to begin interim payments to the Allies immediately after armistice was signed.

What happened to Germany politically at the end of the First World War?

There were 5 important political effects:

- ✓ There was massive political unrest with uprisings and strikes, such as the naval mutiny in Kiel in October, 1918.
- ✓ The unrest spread to become the German Revolution (p.0) began, with huge consequences for the government and constitution of Germany.
- ✓ A communist state was declared in Bavaria on 7th November, 1918.
- ✓ The kaiser lost control and abdicated.
- ✓ The new Weimar Republic (p.0) was created, and by signing the Treaty of Versailles, was greatly resented by the German people.

What were the events of the revolution in Germany before the end of the First World War?

There were 10 main events that occurred during the German Revolution (p.0):

- ✓ The allies offered Germany an armistice to end the war. Part of their deal included that Germany become a democracy and the Kaiser should abdicate.
- ✓ The kaiser declined these terms, wishing to continue with the war.
- ✓ In response, the German Navy mutinied at the end of October 1918, refusing to follow the Kaiser's orders.
- ✓ Soon a domino effect occurred and by November 1918, there were demonstrations and strikes all across Germany and a communist state declared in Bavaria.
- ✓ On the advice of his government and the army, Kaiser Wilhelm abdicated on 9th November, 1918 and fled to the Netherlands.
- ✓ Philipp Scheidemann, a member of the Social Democratic Party (SPD), announced that Germany was a republic to prevent a communist government being declared on 9th November, 1918.
- ✓ Prince Max von Baden stepped down as the kaiser's chancellor. Friedrich Ebert, the leader of the SPD, took over as the chancellor of Germany.
- ✓ On 10th November, 1918, Ebert suspended the Reichstag (parliament) and formed the Council of People's Representatives to run the country until a new constitution was written.
- ✓ Germany signed a ceasefire or armistice with the Allies on 11th November, 1918 to end the fighting in the First World War.
- ✓ In January 1919, there were elections to the Constituent Assembly, or National Assembly, which would decide on the new constitution.

What were the consequences of the German Revolution before the end of the First World War?

There were 3 key results of the German revolution (p.0):

- ✓ The kaiser abdicated.
- ✓ Germany became a republic.
- ✓ This led to the end of the First World War.
